

YOUR WELL-BEING IS OUR FOCUS

For those months of selfless care and isolation, we extend our deepest appreciation!

We're happy to welcome you back to Plateia at the UCLA Meyer and Renee Luskin Conference Center, and aim to exceed your expectations once again.

The safety and well-being of our guests and members of our Plateia team is of utmost importance. As we get back to doing what we do best — taking care of our guests and helping them create lasting memories — we're proceeding with new and measured considerations in mind, expanded health protocols and heightened hygiene standards.

Implementing these steps is important as we all navigate the times ahead and the wonderful moments that will come.

After all, our most joyous times include you.
